

Original DC Protective Assn. is Sept. 18 Topic

Some call it “old”, some call it “original”. Either way, “it” was where Daly City started, and the Original (formerly Old) Daly City Protective Assn. will be the topic for the Guild’s meeting of Sept. 18 , 7:30 p.m., in the Doelger Center multi-use room. Speaker for the evening will be the highly articulate Dana Smith, who had favored the HG with her presentation at our May meeting regarding the poster she had designed for the “Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow” theme of the Gateway Festival held in June.

The ODCPA was organized in 1972 by residents of the oldest neighborhood in Daly City, where the history of DC began and where John Daly’s cows had munched on the grassy hillside.

As threats for development of commercial property and destruction of residences loomed thirty years ago, concerned citizens rallied to save their area. The concerns continue to this day, championed now by a new crop of thoughtful activists.

Among treasures providing background for Ms Smith’s discussion is a rediscovered vintage ODCPA scrapbook recently acquired from the family of DC’s fondly remembered Conrad Pavelles, who died in 1999. He, with Joe Guisto and Ernie Pezzola, was a founder of the ODCPA. The book, deemed a “treasure trove of political and social history” by Ms Smith, will be on display at our meeting. Why “protective”? Come on Sept. 18 to hear Dana.

Recalling Westlake at May Meeting

Our May 15 membership meeting which was to have featured Georgette Sarles, president of the Westlake Shopping Center’s Merchants Assn., didn’t come off quite the way we had planned it. A “good time was had by all”, as the saying goes, but Georgette (unfortunately) was not able to appear, and we shall hope someday to reschedule her. We are still sure that her remarks would be of great interest to those of us that have known, loved and grown up around the Center over the years.

In Georgette’s stead was our dear friend and lifesaver, Al Belotz, who was to have shared the podium with the main speaker, recalling his many years as a CPA doing business in the WSC. Al cheerfully accepted the extra time before the microphone, and did his usual superb job of regaling his audience with stories nostalgic, historic, and fascinating. Thanx, dear Al.

Also on the program was Dana Smith, one of our newer members, who displayed and explained in nice detail her wonderful poster, created for and used to promote this June's Gateway Festival. The event was held in the WSC mall for the first time, and proved a great success. The Guild was honored to have been offered (which we accepted with hasty glee) the use of the WSC store that had previously housed "Pretty & Plump."

Within the building, we were able to display our photos, scrapbooks, paper goods, enlargements, etc. without fear of destruction by wind or other atmospheric elements. We were, to be perfectly frank, comfortable!!! We shall hope to mount future displays in that venue, again thanks to Georgette Sarles and the Westlake Merchants.

NEW/OLD OFFICERS
INSTALLED IN MAY

Nominating Committee chairperson, Betty Schultz, presented a slate of potential officers for the 2002-03 HG year, election followed, and DC City Clerk Helen Flowerday officiated for the installation. Nominations from the floor, or anywhere else, were not forthcoming, so the entire board was re-elected and accepted their duties with pleasant smiles and eagerness. Bless 'em.

Treat Donors for Sept. 18

We realize it's quite a while between our May and September membership meetings, so here's a gentle reminder for those who signed up to be finger-food donors for the coming program. Others are always welcome to add to the goodies. Hospitality chair Mary Hutchings will phone with gentle reminders prior to Sept 16. Thanx to all.

A Few Quick Notes

Since last we met...Broadmoor held a Community Day. Your Guild displayed items of interest for those living in that district...Marilyn Olcese researched life in Dear Old Colma to enhance the birthday celebration of a former resident (1929-37), once an employee of Colma's Witt Dairy, now living in Petaluma...Russ Brabec has launched himself on a massive project of trying to identify the people for whom local streets were named. We know about Lycett, Dennis, Daly, Poncetta, etc. He'll appreciate your input...Daly City re-dedicated two local parks: Marchbank Park and Dave Rowe Park in the Midway Village/Bayshore area...Dave Rowe was honored by Al Teglia as "the premier City Manager", serving Daly City in that capacity from 1969 until retirement in 1995. He died in 1998. Located in the Bayshore area, Dave Rowe Park is also the location for a magnolia tree planted in the memory of "The Mayor of Bayshore" Millie Pleskach, who died in 2000...At the Marchbank event, speakers included Ken & Bunny Gillespie, who introduced "Marchbank, the Man" -- NO "s" on his name, please ---to gathered neighbors. We understand that there is a move afoot by residents of the Vista Grande area to place some historic information in the new Marchbank Park Clubhouse about the acreage and the man ...Colma PTA donated $30 to the HG treasury after the Gillespies presented their "Then & Now" slide show for their third grades...Our Vice President, Mark Weinberger, continues on the Jefferson Elementary School Board of Trustees but has completed his term, and chosen not to "re-up" as an appointee to the DC Library Commission. Well done, Mark!...(These lines are just to show that three-dot journalism lives.)
