

HISTORY GUILD MEETING
7:30 PM, NOV. 16
101 LAKE MERCED BL. DC

LISA ANGELOT TO SALUTE
RICCO LAGOMARSINO

Continuing the Guild's tradition of presenting reminiscences and histories of local families, the Wednesday, Nov. 16, 7:30pm, History Evening at Doelger Center's multi-use room will focus on local developer and business leader, Ricco Lagomarsino.

As arranged by vice-president and program chair, Richard Rocchetta, the guest speaker will be Lisa Angelot, a member of the current Board of Directors of First National Bank of Northern California, formerly First Northern Bank of Daly City. Ms. Angelot is the grand-daughter of Mr. Lagomarsino, one of the founders of the bank.

With his brother, William, Mr. Lagomarsino was instrumental in development of homes and apartments on the east side of Junipero Serra Blvd. after WWII. Their "Lagomarsino Insurance Building" was a Mission Street landmark for years. Both entrepreneurs were well-known and highly respected in local business circles.

Greetings From President Mark:

I am very pleased to report that at the September general meeting, the membership voted to ratify a board recommendation: "The Guild officially goes on record as supporting a permanent home for our museum...and that the preferred location is the John Daly Library at the Top-of-the-Hill." The city will be vacating that location when the new War Memorial Multiservices Building Mission St. is completed and the library relocated to that site. This is now the Guild's foremost priority.

We urge anyone who is so motivated to voice their support to our City Council. Whether you attend Council meetings, write a letter, telephone, or speak to Council members who are about in the community, it is essential that they hear from residents. The board plans to repeat its interest in the John Daly site to the Council, and hopefully impress upon it the importance of having a dedicated, permanent home for our collection of the community's shared history. By maintaining the focus and working all together, we can turn our long-cherished dream into a reality.

OF HISTORICAL INTEREST

Westlake was the focus for HG member Rob Keil's feature article with lots of photos in the Fall issue of AtomicRanch magazine. Among those thanked at the end of the article were Guilders Betty Schultz, Sam Chandler, Bunny & Ken Gillespie, and library ladies Carol Simmons and Chela Anderson. Mr. Keil has thoughtfully donated a copy of AR for the mini-museum's collection of things interesting.

According to the SF Chronicle, "St. Clair: I'll Take It Raw", self-published by Kristine Setting Clark, is now available. In it, Daly City's 1961 Mayor Robert St. Clair, is identified as "The Geek". DC Historians Ken & Bunny Gillespie, taking exception, fired off a letter to the Chron, pointing out that "here in Daly City, we still address Mr. St. Clair as "Mr. Mayor." The letter was published.

Guild director Marilyn Olcese was quoted in Gourmet Magazine's October issue regarding her family's business (since 1930), Daly City pioneers in food recycling—from restaurant scraps to piggie yummys to compost/fertilizer for trendy gourmet gardens. Always eye-catching when parked near the Olcese residence on Edgeworth was member Alan Olcese's unique "Makin' Bacon" spic, span and shiny swill-pickup truck.

Guild secretary Dana Smith's unique art was displayed at the 2005 Open Studios event in San Francisco's Fort Mason, mid-October. Her home-grown dahlias colorfully embellished the HG's Gateway Festival display table.

Trader Joe's of Westlake has been supplied with captions by DC Historians Ken & Bunny Gillespie to embellish the store's display of six photos of local historical interest. The display, toward the rear of the shop, is in the passageway to the restrooms. "Interest is high," reports store manager Tiffany.

Daly City Business Center, managed by HG Member Tess Lagandaon, will host an Open House on Thursday, Nov. 17, 2-4 pm, 355 Gellert Blvd., Suite #230, DC. YOU ARE INVITED to view the History Guild's "Arby Collection" of historic photos, currently on loan to the Center. The framed photos were donated to the Guild when Arby's Restaurant closed in Westlake. Light refreshments will be served. For info: phone Tess or Menia Cato at 650-757-2060
